5. Each entry consists of 1 Discus fish. A non refundable entry of $60.00 (member) / $80.00 (nonmember) shall be charged for each entry. All entry forms shall be accompanied by full payment. Cheques shall be made payable to Discus Club (Singapore). Participants shall be allowed to submit a maximum of 3 entries per class.
6. The organisers reserve the right to re-categorise in the event of wrong entry for any class. Thereafter participant shall be informed. However, after benching, fish found in the wrong class shall be disqualified. Due to the limited number of tanks and in the case of overwhelming entries, the organizers reserve the right to limit a participant to a maximum of 1 entry per class. This is to encourage maximum participation from all hobbyists and breeders. If the entries are still more than the number of tanks available, then entries shall be selected on a first come first served basis. Unsuccessful applicants shall be informed at least 3 days prior to the competition date.
7. Each entry shall be provided with an aquarium tank, aeration and filter.
8. The organisers shall look after the welfare of the exhibits throughout the duration of the competition. However, the organisers shall not be held responsible for any injury, loss or mortality of exhibits.
9. Fishes shall not be fed during the competition.
10. Once the entries are accepted and displayed at the exhibition, competitors shall not be allowed to remove any exhibits from the tanks, unless prior approval has been obtained from the organisers.
11. Coloured medications are not allowed. If medication or water conditioners are used, they must be colourless.
12. The closing date for all entries shall be Monday, 1 November 2010.
13. All fishes shall be brought to the competition venue on Wednesday, 1 December 2010, from 5 to 7 pm.
14. Judging shall take place on Thursday, 2 December 2010, from 9 am to 3pm and prize presentation on Sunday, 5 December 2010 at 2pm.
15. A panel of local and oversea judges shall be invited to judge the competition. The decision of the judges shall be final and binding and no further correspondence shall be entertained.
16. In the event of disputes, the Organising Committee shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of the rules & regulations. No arguments shall be entertained.
17. After the judging is completed, prize winners shall check the white board and if mistakes are found, they shall be required to inform the registration counter immediately.
18. Competitors shall collect their fish from the show venue on Sunday, 5 December 2010 from 3 to 5 pm. The organising Committee shall not be responsible for any fish not collected after the specific date and time.
19. Trophies shall be awarded to the 1st, 2nd and 3rd prize winners for each class. The grand champion shall be selected from the 1st prize winners of the first 10 classes.
20. The organising Committee reserves the right to disqualify entries if any of the following is observed e.g. deformed or unhealthy looking fish.
21. All disqualified fish shall have a red tag on the tank.
22. The Organiser reserves the right to reject any entry applicants / registrant from participating without having to give any reason. In such cases, the entry fee will be fully refunded.
23. Judging criteria :
  - a. General Condition e.g. Expressiveness of the fish, behaviour in the aquarium.
  - b. Size e.g. Overall size and mass of the fish.
  - c. Shape e.g. Round or high bodied, any bulging forehead or indentation
